

FREE ARCHAEOLOGICAL LECTURE

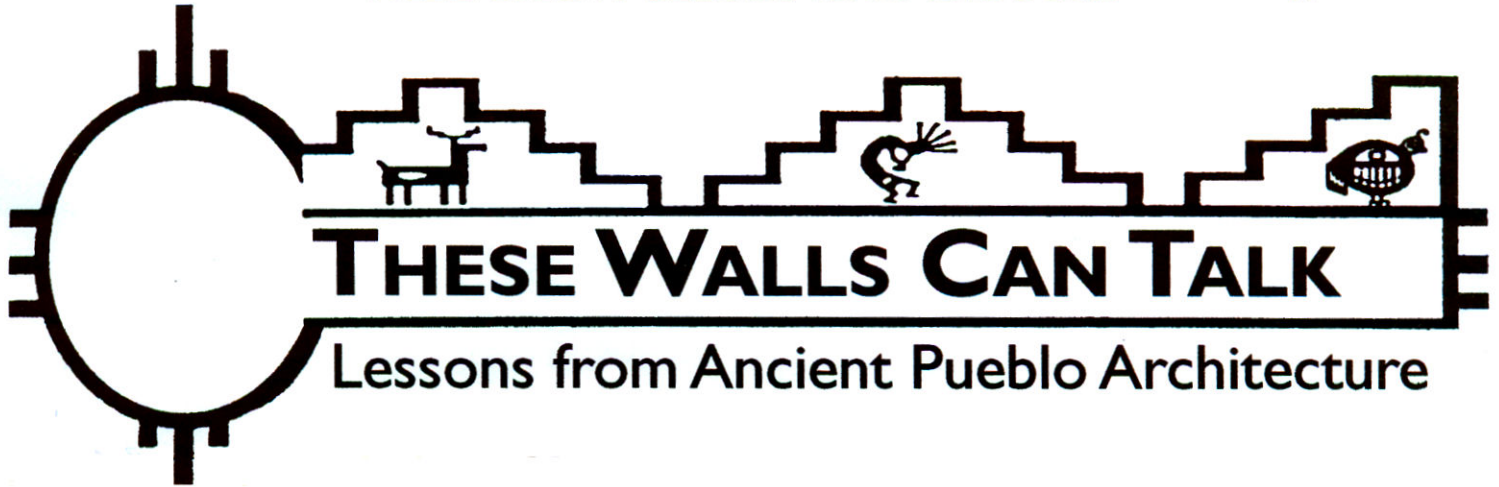

Jonathan E. Reyman, Ph.D.

Curator of Anthropology

Illinois State Museum

WILL SHOW SLIDES AND DISCUSS

THESE WALLS CAN TALK

Lessons from Ancient Pueblo Architecture

If an archaeologist asks the right questions, there is a great deal to be learned about ancient Pueblo life from the study of architecture: population size and social organization, trade and other economic activity, cosmology, and more. This presentation focuses on the architecture of CHACO CANYON, New Mexico, and the lessons to be learned from it.

Thursday
October 15, 2009
7:30 PM

Marie Irwin Community Center
 18120 Highland Avenue
 Homewood, IL

* HANDICAPPED ACCESSIBLE

FOR MORE INFORMATION CALL 708-748-4902

South Suburban Archaeological Society invites all interested persons to attend this lecture

This program is made possible in part by a grant from

The MacArthur Fund for Arts and Culture at The Richard H. Driehaus Foundation