BEYOND HARPISTS & HOUSEWIVES:
Women & Their Employment in Ancient Egypt

Despite their misleadingly low profile in the historical record, women were active participants in ancient Egypt's economy. This talk examines a few of the varied and often surprising ways that ancient Egyptian women found employment. The speaker is a graduate student in Egyptology at the Oriental Institute and has recently participated in excavations of the Oriental Institute at the 4th cataract in Sudan.
