

SOUTH SUBURBAN ARCHAEOLOGICAL SOCIETY
PRESENTS A FREE ILLUSTRATED LECTURE

Craig Mayer

SSAS Founder & First President

LESSER KNOWN SITES IN THE YUCATAN

The speaker will present information on some of the lesser known sites in the Yucatan based on his extensive travels and studies of that area. He will discuss the mystique of Maya archaeology and cultural exploration that is alive and well in the Northern Yucatan today. He holds a number of degrees in anthropology and archaeology from Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas, and Durham University in England.

THURSDAY, JULY 15, 2010, 7:30 PM

Marie Irwin Community Center★ • 18120 Highland Avenue, Homewood, IL

★ADA-ACCESSIBLE

FOR MORE INFORMATION CALL 708-748-4902

South Suburban Archaeological Society invites all interested persons to attend this lecture

This program is made possible in part by a grant from
The MacArthur Fund for Arts and Culture at The Richard H. Driehaus Foundation